

Dear Denise

England: colour
America: color
England: humour
America: humor
England: what are you doing?
America: getting rid of u

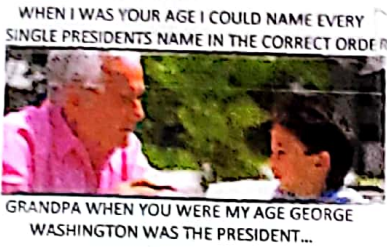

Firework technician quote: If I run, you run!!!!

What American holiday can you never trust?... the 4th of JuLIE!

What do you call George Washington's false teeth?
Presidentures.

What does a patriotic chicken say?
Yankee doodle doo!

Someone told me that they don't have the 4th of July in other countries. Seems kinda stupid to skip from the 3rd to the 5th, but whatever.

What is the most popular sport on the Fourth of July?
Flag football.

I brought a date to the 4th of July party... really sweetened up the fruit salad.

What do you call an American who eats pastries on the 4th of July? Pastry-otic.

WHAT GENERATION LIKES FIREWORKS THE MOST?
THE BOOMER GENERATION

How much trash do you have to throw in the ocean to make a new country?
None, just some tea!

4th of July The only time of the year Americans say the day and month in the correct order.

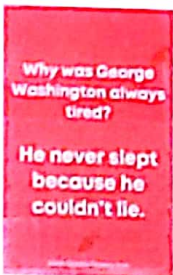

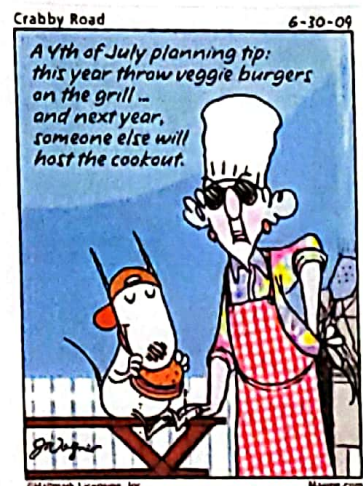

What did the colonist say at the Boston Tea Party? The price is too steep!

I was named after George Washington,
My name isn't the same as his I was just named after he was.

What do you call a firecracker that doesn't go off until July 5th?
A late boomer

What letter is the coolest on the 4th of July? Iced T.

Was General Washington a handsome man?
Yes, he was George-eous!

Fun Facts: The Pledge of Allegiance has changed several times since it was written.

The original salute to the Pledge of Allegiance was the arm gesture that we associate with "Heil Hitler". In 1942 Congress specified that the pledge should be said standing at attention with our right hand over our heart.

The 4th of July was not declared a national holiday until 1941.

Jean-Larry