Dear Denise

"Golly guys! Can't you wait until I get my tackle box open?"

I dreamt about Roman numerals 5,4,1, and 500.
It was VIVID.

Last night I had a dream that I was weightless.
I was like Omg!

I would tell you about my dream involving a Lion, a Witch and a Wardrobe, but it's Narnia business.

"I dreamt last night that someone came up with broccoli byproducts."

My friend dreamt he wrote The Hobbit.
I think he was Tolkien in his sleep.

It's been a long-term dream to convert a lighthouse.
But the project has been on and off for years.

I had a recurring dream about being in a restaurant with two friends when the bill came to $100.
We split it. It was $33.33333333333.....

I dreamt about a horse last night.
It turned out to be a night mare.

I spent all day bobbing up and down in the water
It's been my dream ever since I was a little buoy.

Never in my wildest dreams did I think I could have all this by age 35:
- 6 figure passive income
- My forever home, paid off
- Vacation home in Maui
- Live-in nanny to help us with the kids
And yep I was right, I don't have any of that

What is your dream job?
"Well, in my dreams, I don't work."

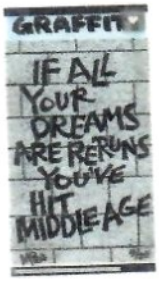
What is spider man's dream job?
Web developer.

it has always been my dream to be a multi-millionaire like my father...
...my father has been dreaming of becoming a multi-millionaire too.

Doc, I'm having bad dreams where I'm either a teepee or a wigwam.
Relax, you're two tents.

What type of dreams do hotels have?
Suite dreams.

"I had a bad dream that you were getting rest."



I had a bad dream about Mexican food,
I don't want to taco 'bout it.

Halfway to my dream of being a criminal lawyer!
Now I just have to work on the lawyer part.

I have decided to pursue my dreams...
... good night.

Jean + Larry
